The image shows a blank musical score for a symphony orchestra. It consists of 13 staves, each with a specific instrument label to its left. The staves are arranged in four groups: the first group contains Flûtes, Hautbois, Clarinettes en Sib, and Bassons; the second group contains Cors en Fa and Trompettes en Sib; the third group contains Timbales; and the fourth group contains Violons I, Violons II, Altos, Violoncelles, and Contrebasses. Each staff begins with a treble clef (except for Bassons, Timbales, and Contrebasses which use a bass clef, and Altos which use an alto clef). The staves are empty, with no musical notation present.
