Detailed description: This image shows a blank musical score for a symphony orchestra. It consists of 13 staves, each with a specific instrument label to its left. The staves are arranged vertically. The first four staves (Flûtes, Hautbois, Clarinettes en Sib, Bassons) are grouped together by a vertical brace on the left. The next three staves (Corns en Fa, Trompettes en Sib, Timbales) are also grouped by a vertical brace. The final six staves (Violons I, Violons II, Altos, Violoncelles, Contrebasses) are grouped by a vertical brace. Each staff begins with a clef: Flûtes, Hautbois, Cors en Fa, Violons I, Violons II, and Trompettes en Sib use the treble clef; Bassons, Timbales, Violoncelles, and Contrebasses use the bass clef; and Altos use the alto clef. The rest of the staves are empty.
